DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US 5317819 (Ellis).

Ellis teaches an article of footwear comprising an upper, a midsole/outsole having a heel region with the outer face having a convex curvature, said convex curvature has a radius with the curvature approximately coincident with the sagittal plane centre of mass of the calcaneus of the wearer's foot (see the marked-up figure 15 and 22B below). All of the curves appear to pivot around the sagittal plane centre of mass of the calcaneus of the wearer's foot.

FIG. 15

FIG. 22B

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3728

4. Claims 10/2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the reference(s) as applied to claim 2 above, and further in view of US 5404659 (Burke et al).

Burke teaches the midsole/outsole with a dome shaped catalyst having an apex with a maximum height from 5.28% to 7.6% of the length of the sole, see col. 4, lines 5-7. It would have been obvious to provide the sole unit as taught above with a dome shaped catalyst, as taught by Burke, to provide a more energy efficient footwear. Regarding the range of 1 to 5%, it would appear to be obvious to adjust the height of the apex of Burke, especially within 0.28%, to suit a particular foot or bone structure.

5. Claims 10/2,14 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the reference(s) as applied to claim 2 above, and further in view of US 6301807 (Gardner).

Gardner teaches the midsole/outsole with a dome shaped catalyst having an apex with a maximum height from 1 to 5% of the length of the sole, see col. 4, lines 29-32. Burke also teaches the catalyst with receptacles having vertical sidewalls for accommodating a resilient member; see figures 9-14. It would have been obvious to provide the sole unit as taught above with a dome shaped catalyst and receptacle with vertical sidewalls, as taught by Gardner, to provide a more energy efficient footwear.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed July 11, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Art Unit: 3728

Applicant presented arguments regarding figures 5B and 6 of Ellis but doesn't present any arguments with regard to figures 15 and 22B. See the figures provided above. Moreover, even a small portion of the soles shown in figures 5B and 6 have curves that appear to pivot around the sagittal plane centre of mass of the calcaneus of the wearer's foot. The examiner agrees that the total curved surface of the outer surface of Ellis doesn't have a curve as claimed but it at least has a portion that is curved as claimed. Nonetheless, figures 15 and 22B clearly have the curved surface as claimed, see the figures above.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 4,5,7 and 11-13 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

9. Applicant is duly reminded that a complete response must satisfy the requirements of 37 C.F. R. 1.111, including:

-“The reply must present arguments pointing out the specific distinctions believed to render the claims, including any newly presented claims, patentable over any applied references.”

--“A general allegation that the claims define a patentable invention without specifically pointing out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references does not comply with the requirements of this section.”

-Moreover, “The prompt development of a clear issue requires that the replies of the applicant meet the objections to and rejections of the claims. Applicant should also specifically point out the support for any amendments made to the disclosure. See MPEP 2163.06” MPEP 714.02. The “disclosure” includes the claims, the specification and the drawings.
